

Amature radio operators contribute a great deal during emergencies. Anything which might interfere with their communications during these difficult times would injure our country and cost lives. Please don't pass this law.